

The Ralph Lewis Bindery, established by the Guild, is located at the NSW Writers' Centre, in historic Garry Owen House, situated in the parkland grounds of Rozelle Hospital

The Bindery, which is available for use by members, provides bench space, plant, tools and equipment, the cost of which may be beyond the means of individuals. Workshop equipment comprises blocking machines, type, finishing tools, presses, guillotines, specialist tool items, etc.

Materials for bookbinding are also available for sale to members and include various types of board, cloth, buckram, adhesives, papers, etc. Attending the workshop provides you with enthusiastic bookbinding company and advice from more experienced members.

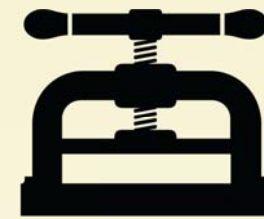

GETTING TO THE BINDERY

DRIVING: Enter Callan Park from Balmain Road and follow the signs to the NSW Writers Centre. From the rear car-park, the Bindery is on the building's right-hand side.

BUS: 440, 444, or 445 bus, disembark out front on Balmain Road near Grove Street and go through the hole in the brick wall.

LIGHT RAIL: Disembark at Lilyfield (last stop), climb the stairs, and walk up Grove Street towards Balmain Road.
